Important Information

◎ Prohibited Items & Audience Support Goods

To ensure the safety of all visitors, a visual inspection of bags and personal belongings will be conducted upon entry. Thank you for your understanding.

The following items are not permitted inside the venue:

- Electronic recording devices (including cameras, binoculars with recording functions, audio recorders, video cameras, etc.)
- Hazardous or prohibited items

If prohibited items are found, please follow the instructions of the venue staff. Entry will only be permitted after it has been confirmed that no prohibited items are being brought into the venue.

Audience support goods may be used only below chest height so as not to obstruct the view of other audience members.

The following items are prohibited:

- Light-emitting support goods (such as glow sticks)
- Homemade boards, fans, banners, or similar items featuring performers' photographs
- Homemade support goods that infringe copyright, portrait rights, publicity rights, trademark rights, or any other intellectual property rights (including the use of characters, photographs, celebrities' likenesses, company logos, or product logos)

Failure to comply with these rules may result in refusal of entry or removal from the venue without prior notice.

◎ Photography, Recording & Live Streaming

Photography, video recording, audio recording, and live streaming inside the venue are strictly prohibited.

The use or possession of cameras, binoculars with recording functions, audio recorders, video cameras, smartphones for recording, or any similar devices for recording purposes is not permitted during the performance.

If a smartphone is visible during the performance, or if a smartphone or binoculars is being used, venue staff may ask to confirm that no recording is taking place.

Please set your mobile phone to silent mode and keep it stored in your bag throughout the performance.

Anyone found recording or photographing the performance will be asked to delete the recorded data immediately and leave the venue. No refunds will be issued under any circumstances.

Please note that venue staff may photograph or record the venue when necessary for security or operational purposes.

◎ Gifts & Flowers

Please note that no gift box will be available at the venue.

Due to limited space, we are unable to accept gifts, flowers, or other items for the performers.

◎ Other Information

Tickets cannot be cancelled, changed, or refunded under any circumstances. Please refer to the Toyooka Theater Festival Ticket Disclaimer for details.
